Announcements - February 27, 2011

We want to say "Thank You" for our kids and their leaders who provided a wonderful banquet last evening for all of the seniors among us. You're a great group!

Contribution statements for your tax return for 2010 are located on the table in the foyer in an envelope with your name on the outside.

This is the last Sunday of the month. We will enjoy singing and a devotional this evening followed by sandwiches and desert. Hope you can come.

The new teaching quarter will begin this coming Wednesday evening. We want to say "THANK YOU" to all of our teachers who served this last quarter.

LTC kids, this is a reminder that preconvention two projects are due on Sunday, March 6th.

We will be providing lunch this coming Thursday for the Lions for Christ. This is a make up date for the one we missed earlier due to snow. Please bring cookies and cokes by this Wednesday evening to help with this.

Linda Ainsworth suffered a fall last Sunday morning and has been found to have a cracked pelvis. She is recovering at home. Jill Warren, therapist for Angelina Young, lost her husband to a heart attack last Thursday. They worship with the Pleasant Valley Church. Please remember these and those below on our prayer list in your prayers.

DON'T GIVE UP

The latest research tells us that "till death do us part" is showing up less and less in marriage vows today. It has been set aside in favor of things like "as long as our love shall last" or "until our time together is over." That's pretty open-ended, isn't it? We seem to always want to have a "way out." What passes for love among some couples doesn't even last through getting all of the wedding gifts put away. "Make it easy on yourself" are the words of advice that are given to lots of folks. So commonly accepted is a casual attitude toward marriage that we look for it elsewhere. We look for it in our employment, in our character, in our commitments, and, tragically, in our faith. Because we do, we betray our spiritual potential.....we abandon our faith.

Have you ever wondered why the Bible represents the Church as the family of God?. Why it pictures its members as brothers and sisters to one another? Cynicism would say its because we are so much like little children fussing in the back seat of the car. The real reason is because we belong to one another in a special way, and are expected to take care of each other when that neighborhood bully named Satan comes looking to do us harm. As Christians we have all pledged our fidelity to God and to one another. When we entered that baptistery it was saying to our Lord and to each other "till death do us part." Surely we understood that our coming was to be without reservation. The only thing we were looking for a "way out of" was out sin.....and He provided that way. But, Larry, it's more difficult than I thought it would be. So.....? When our Lord spoke of the "easy way", He condemned it. Matt. 7:13-14 "Be thou faithful unto death" brings eternal life. Rev 2:10
