MORE THAN JUST TALK

Our faith certainly must be just that, mustn't it? One of the accusations Paul lodged against his own Jewish brethren was that the "name of God was blasphemed among the gentiles because of you." As Christians we wear the name of our Lord who died for us. Like it or not, lots of folks form their impressions of the Lord Jesus by those that claim his name. Many folks who couldn't pick Jesus out of a line-up know better than to think that the members of Fred Phelps Westboro Church are a representative product of the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ. In case you may have forgotten, this is the group that travels the land investing their time, money, and energy in letting the world know that God hates America, soldiers, and gays. And then there are those guys running around in the woods in tiger stripped fatigues shooting their guns in preparation for their "Christian Militia" defending our Lord and His cause through violence. Honestly, does anyone really believe that the One who walked on water and rose from the dead really needs the help of men with painted faces preaching a dogma of war and hatred?

I know that the examples above are extreme, and Dayton folks have little if anything in common with them. I thank you for that. Yet....I also know that it's easy for anyone to settle back in their profession of faith while ignoring the practice of it. While wearing the name of our Lord it is critical that we are consistent in accurately representing who He is to our world. Our faith is certainly expressed in words, but it is expressed even more clearly in actions. We must indeed do more than "just talk about our faith." "If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this; to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction and to keep himself unspotted from the world." James 1:26-27

Let's all of us.....all of the time.....in all situations determine to commit ourselves to simply practice what we preach. No more mixed messages. No more compromised convictions. Let's simply live our faith every day.
