Announcements - March 25, 2012

This evening is the last Sunday of the month. We will be sharing sandwiches and desert following our usual monthly singing service that evening.

The next area wide youth activity evening will be hosted by the Paris Church on Sunday evening, April 15, beginning at 5:00 p.m. There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the foyer for those planning to attend. The church will be renting a van.

Please mark your calendar for the spring session of the Round Robin. A complete schedule is found on the back of your bulletin.

Jerry Upton has completed 15 of his required 25 radiation treatments and is continuing to make improvement. Vivian Witcher is in St. Edwards Hospital in room 3320 with serious health issues. Bobbie Flippo's parents have moved to be with Bobbie's sister for extended care. Shelley's illness is continuing to bring diminished capacity to Shelley. Please keep these as well as all of those on our prayer list in your prayers.

While visiting his grandparents a small boy opened the big family Bible. As he thumbed through the pages something fell out. He picked it up and saw that it was an old leaf that had been pressed between the pages. "Mama, look what I found," he said. "What is it dear?" With astonishment in his voice he said, "I think I found Adam's underwear!"

THIS IS ALL PASSING, FOLKS

You've lived long enough in this old world to know that none of this stuff lasts very long, haven't you? War, recession, cancer, migraines, an ogre for a boss, a really tough college class.....not a single one of them lasts forever. All of the bad stuff associated with this world.....as well as all of the good stuff. Danielle took some pictures of a sunset over the lake behind our house just this last week. Donna posted them on facebook. It really was a beautiful sunset, but it didn't last. The peak of beauty in those things is very fleeting. Regardless of how good the ice cream is you soon come to the bottom of the bowl. A really great vacation planned over many months and saved for even longer soon comes, and is even sooner gone. Even the longest of human lives are incredibly short when measured by eternity. David said thousands of years ago, "Lord, remind me of how brief my time on earth will be. Remind me that my days are numbered...just how fleeting my life is. You have made my life no longer than the width of my hand. My entire lifetime is just a moment to you; at best, each of us is but a breath." Psalms 39:4-5 NLT

Maybe it would help all of us to keep things in perspective if we simply realized that the good and the bad, the best days and the worst, the achievements and the embarrassments are always less than they seem to be at the moment. The fella who takes the positives too seriously is in danger of arrogance; the one who thinks a failure or humiliation is forever tends to succumb to depression and despair. Life continues to be transient. Successes are only momentary, and failures need not be viewed as final. There is, truth be told, a certain element of relief in knowing that nothing associated with our human experience in this perishing world is forever.

A young man asked his grandfather what his favorite passage in the Bible was. Without hesitation he said, "It's the line in the Bible that says, 'and it came to pass.'" If you live long enough in the this old world you will certainly see the validity of his choice. So....what must we do? In every good thing, give thanks. In every transgression, accept His forgiveness. In every hurt and loss, accept His daily grace and strength.
