Announcements - July 29, 2012

Today is the 5th Sunday of the month. As is our custom we will be sharing a wonderful lunch following services this morning with a time of singing and a devotional by Reid Carter immediately following. A communion service will be held this evening for those who could not be present this morning. Our contribution today will be going to Southern Christian Home. If you are visiting today please consider yourself to be our special guests at lunch.

Our youth are invited to an area wide youth night at the Booneville Church set for this coming Saturday, August 4. The Mena Church has a back-to-school youth area wide youth activity planned for next Saturday, August 11. Sign-up sheets for both activities are on the table in the foyer.

Jerry Upton continues his chemo treatments and is struggling with the side affects at home. Bonnie Ray will be having cornea transplant surgery done this Wednesday to correct vision problems she has. Jean Riggan, mother of Kathy Willoughby, has been diagnosed with a return of breast cancer after being a survivor for many years. Surgery will be performed as soon as it can be scheduled. Shannon Trotzel is requesting your prayers as she continues to struggle with issues involving her muscular dystrophy. Alice Bennett, Laura Dacus' aunt, has been diagnosed with breast cancer and had successful having surgery last week. She will be having radiation treatments as soon as she is able. Moe Jones had surgery this last week for a deviated septum. Please keep these as well as all of those on our long term prayer list in your prayers.

JUST WHO ARE WE?

He was convicted as the evidence strongly suggested he should be. He will pay the price....but so will all of those associated with his family and Penn State. His private life in abusing kids and his public life as a nationally known football coach simply contradicted each other. A presidential nominee lies about an affair and a child he refuses to acknowledge. Another music star checks into yet another round of rehab. The stories are endless as the lives of famous people and their failures play out in the press and media. I'm no prophet, but I know this. There will be more. And with each new one we will debate again whether what a person does in private should have anything to do with valuing their public abilities. Can I just pitch my tent on this side of the debate.....of course it should!!!

The politician that will lie and cheat on his wife will lie and cheat on the voter. The music star that is out of control and on his/her way to self-destruction will most assuredly take others with them as well. Have we really come to a place in our view of life that we honestly believe that public image trumps personal character....where we will tolerate anybody and anything that turns a profit regardless of harm done to themselves and others? I want to remind all of us: moms and dads, teachers and truckers, parents and kids that we are more than our jobs. Who we are is at the very heart of what we do....and we are Christians. In our public lives we are Christians. In our private lives we are Christians. The presence or absence of character and ethical behavior either legitimizes or undermines everything we say we value. Whether our behavior is seen only by God or on display before the world, that behavior must be consistent with the truth of His Word that we claim makes up the foundation of our lives. Paul challenges us all when he says, "Put on, therefore, as the elect of god, holy and beloved, a heart of mercy, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another and forgiving one another....and above all things put on love, which is the bond of perfection." Colossians 3:12-14
