There is a sign-up sheet on the center table in the foyer for men who might be interested in serving as ushers here during worship times. If you have any questions see one of the elders.

A sign-up sheet is also on the table for any of our ladies who plan to attend the Ladies Day Service at Valley View on Saturday, September 14. More information is in this bulletin and on the bulletin board.

Our annual ice cream social was its usual success last evening. Thanks to all of you who came and for all of the excellent ice cream provided.

We congratulate Moe and Sue Jones on the birth of their great-granddaughter, Alexia Quinn Jones, who was born last week. She is 8 lbs 13 ozs of joy for the family.

Terry Looper, son of Carolyn McDaniel, and Billy Parish, son of Freda Parish, continue to suffer from critical health issues at home. Jason Palmer, Holly Palmer's son, underwent a second surgery last Wednesday in Little Rock to correct brain stem leakage resulting from his surgery the week before. We extend our sympathy to Mark and Lori Anderson in the sudden death last week of Mark's brother, Thomas Anderson, of Ft. Smith. The funeral will be held this Tuesday at 10:00 at Edwards in Ft. Smith. Visitation will be from 2:00 till 4:00 this afternoon at Edwards. Wanza Presson is struggling with blood pressure issues, and remains at home at this time. HAVE WE QUIT CARING?

You might think so. It was almost a year ago that General Petraeus' affair was brought to light. We all liked and respected him. How could you not with all of his accomplishments and devotion to duty? When called upon to serve in whatever capacity from Army General to Director of the CIA, he always said yes. He had been married to his wife, Holly, for 38 years when the news broke. He resigned, and stepped back from public service, acknowledging his transgression and violation of the military code of conduct. His failure is not unusual in America today. Political leaders from presidents on down have been guilty of the same kind of conduct. Whether it's politicians, movie stars, or professional athletes...the people that we place of pedestals seem to be constantly falling off. Our media lives for the scandal of it all. Newspapers, news programs, and talking heads on every radio and television channel pounce on those kind of things like buzzards on carrion. An ongoing poll in the Los Angeles Times asked if an affair should cost someone their career. The poll reflected that 75% of folks said it should not. Well, of course they did! That's California, not Dayton community, Arkansas. Most of us have been around long enough to know that the thinking on the West coast and the East coast eventually finds its way into Middle America. It shows up on our doorsteps trying to barge in on our way of thinking.

In this blessed nation we have come to care too much about our cars and our hair...our bank accounts and portfolios...our image and our options...our computers and our cell phones. On the other hand, we seem to care less and less about families...commitments...character...integrity...decency. We are strange folks indeed. We are told that the church and Bible are no longer relevant in a culture as advanced as ours. But you know that our very culture is what provides the greatest evidence of the absolute necessity of both. We are indeed the greatest nation on earth, but with each passing generation we seem to be slipping further and further away from the strength of character and faith that has always been the foundation of our greatness. Have we quit caring??? No, not yet....not all of us....only some of us. Hold on to your faith. Hold on to the convictions that come from the Word of God. In so doing you will be a blessing to your family, this church, and this nation.
