Church Directory updates are available on the center table in the foyer. Be sure to pick up the entire 28 page packet. Instructions are also on the table for those who would like to download the directory to their computer or phone.

This month has five Sundays. We will enjoy our usual 5th Sunday lunch following worship this morning. Following our lunch we will meet back in the auditorium for singing and a devotional by Reid Carter. A communion service will be held at 6:00 p.m. for those who could not attend this morning's service. As is our custom the contribution today will go toward early payment of the church building loan.

Jerry Carlisle of Paragould Christian Home will be with us on Sunday morning, April 13, to update us on the work there which you support on a monthly basis.

A power point presentation will be given by Larry on Sunday morning, April 27, to update the church on the works we support and our loan status.

The next area wide youth activity evening will be hosted by the Paris Church on Sunday evening, April 20. We encourage our youth to put that date on their planners.

Jane Robinson is in Health South Rehab recovering from a recent stroke. Nell Milam is in Ashton Place in Barling for rehab to gain back her strength. She is in room 510. Our sympathy is extended to the family of Keith Cass of Mansfield who passed away last week from H1N1. Our sympathy is also extended to Cameron and Alana Delp in the passing of their great-grandmother, Katie Delp, last week. The funeral is set for Saturday, April 5, at the Dayton Baptist Church at 3:00 p.m. Michael Sanders, Andy and Charity's son, is in Children's Hospital in Little Rock in room 410, diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia and is expected to be there for a while. A spinal tap was done yesterday and a picc line to aid in the chemo treatment until a port can be placed. Doctors have stated that this type responds favorably to treatment. Please keep these as well as all of those on our long term prayer list in your prayers.

Thank you for enabling this critical work to go on each month. Not included in this information is monthly local benevolence, building payment and utilities, and one time support for other important works. So....if any one asks you, "What are you doing to help in the Lord's work?" Among other things you can give him this list.

THIS IS YOUR "INVESTMENT" IN DOING GOOD

Birthdays for the week

April 2 - Casey Kindle

Congratulations!!!

Anniversaries for the week

ROUND ROBIN.....Believe it or not our spring Round Robin isn't that far away. It's certainly close enough for you to get it on your calendar. We here at Dayton will host the first session on Monday evening, April 21. Gary Frashier of Booneville will be speaking. Services will continue through Friday evening. As we customarily do singing will start at 6:30 p.m. each night with the regular service beginning at 7:00 p.m. It will certainly be a good week.

Contributions for the Sanders'....A contribution box is on the center table in the foyer to assist the family with expenses while they are staying with Michael. This church has already given aide out of your general contribution. Bank accounts have also been set up to help the family. If you place your check in the box out front mark it for the Sanders family. This amount will be tax deductible since it is going through the Church. Thanks for your caring and your prayers for this family.

BEING AWAY

Donna, Danielle, and I are back. Some of you didn't miss us because you didn't even know we were gone. We flew out of and back into XNA...neither without incident. An auto accident and blocked road left us scrambling to make it in time for departure. Fortunately, they held the plane for us. We flew back in late Friday afternoon in the rain and found a dead battery in our car. After repeated failures to get it going we left it there and rented a car to drive on home. Joe and Jason returned the rental yesterday, and took up a new battery to bring the car home. Other than those two things the trip to New York was great. A week with Danielle is a blessing to aging grandparents. The city was great. For small town country folks it certainly exceeded our expectations. Broadway was great. The food was great. The memorials were outstanding. We even found a few folks who spoke English up there. Most of them spoke it with an accent. Most of them spoke it a lot faster than my ears could hear it. Some of them weren't multi-lingual enough to get a good hold on Arkansas English, but that was ok. The last driver we had was from Russia and had only been in New York for a year. I pretended to understand him...and he pretended to understand me. Danielle and Donna shopped at Macy's for a prom dress and shoes. Can you imagine a huge building with eight floors of stuff to buy? They bought stuff. I found a McDonald's in there and bought a cup of coffee so I could sip and read. Ground Zero was sobering....it reminds us all that life is uncertain and that each day should be treasured.

Being away....we've all had the experience. New York was great....but it was not home. We arrived back in Arkansas. Home again....kinda. But not ultimately. The journey for all of us continues. As Christians regardless of where we pillow our heads at night we are still away. We remind ourselves in song from time to time that "this world is not my home....I'm just a passing through. My treasures are laid up somewhere beyond the blue. I know He'll take me through though I am weak and poor.....And I can't feel at home in this world anymore." Is it with us sometimes the way it was with Paul sometimes? "The desire to break camp here and be with Christ is powerful. Some days I can think of nothing better. But most days, because of what you are going through, I am sure it's better for me to stick it out here. So I plan to be around for a while." Phil. 1:22fMV And that's what we plan, isn't it? So for now, and only for now, we are still away. The journey for all of continues.
